PUBLIC RELEASE

NEW CHAIR ELECTED TO OANHSS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

(June 2013) – The Board of the Ontario Association of Non-Profit Homes and Services for Seniors (OANHSS) is pleased to announce the election of Tim Siemens as Chair.

Mr. Siemens is the executive director for two private, not-for-profit homes in the Niagara Region: Pleasant Manor Retirement, a full continuum campus with 41 long term care beds, 157 rental apartments and 32 life lease units in Niagara-on-the-Lake; and, Tabor Manor, also a full continuum campus with a 128-bed newly redeveloped long term care home and 124 rental apartments in St. Catharines. He also oversees supportive housing programs in these communities.

Mr. Siemens has a master's degree in Social Policy Analysis and has completed the OANHSS Administrator Leadership Program and the Advanced Health Leadership Program through Rotman's School of Management. He has served on the OANHSS Board of Directors since 2008 and has been actively involved at the regional level on a variety of local networks and forums.

Mr. Siemens brings extensive experience in seniors' care and services and a solid understanding of the challenges and opportunities for the not-for-profit sector in the changing health care environment.

OANHSS is a provincial association that has represented non-profit long term care homes, seniors' housing, and community service agencies for over 90 years. The Association is dedicated to promoting the strengths and values of not-for-profit service delivery and ensuring that seniors' care, services and housing remain provincial priorities.
